Extreme Indoor Camping Adventure

High school youth are invited to join in the fun of mid-winter overnight camping adventure. Only this camping adventure will be without the cold. Living Waters Church of Lino Lakes is hosting this overnight in a warm and cozy part of their church that includes snacks, and a roundtrip ride to Perkins for breakfast, and fun all-nighter in a safe and warm environment. The church is calling this event an Extreme Nocturnal Indoor Camping Adventure. The event starts at 7 p.m. on Sunday, January 20 and concludes Monday morning about 9 a.m. Its popularity has grown over the last three years, says the church's youth director, Laura Delventhal. This event is open to all high school age youth and free of charge except for breakfast.

Participants should bring flashlights, warm clothes, sleeping bags, pillows and money for and money for breakfast. Living Waters is located at 865 Birch Street. Permission slips can be obtained at the church or by request by email to youthminister@livingwaterslutheran.org. For more information, contact the church at (651) 481-0220 during their office hours of 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Thursday, or by email at the same address.
