Scouts Earn Religious Award

The Reverend Peter Morlock had the honor of bestowing the “God and Family” award of the P.R.A.Y. scouting curriculum to a Girl Scout and a Boy Scout during the 8:30 worship service at Living Waters Lutheran Church on Sunday, February 3. The recipients are Jonah Hackbart-Morlock and Anna Grace Hottinger. P.R.A.Y. is an acronym for Program of Religious Activities with Youth. Part of the Scout Law proclaims, “a scout is reverent.” These two young scouts can now show their reverence as a badge of honor for completing the second segment of a four-award process, designed to deepen scouts’ understandings of their faith. The P.R.A.Y. Award program has a curriculum for four different age groups and is tailored for a number of faith traditions.
